

Tom Marlow

George Jelliss tells me that Tom Marlow died in September 2011. I was in communication with him late in 2009 regarding complementary five-leaper tours, but George was in correspondence over a much longer period and has posted an obituary in his "Jeepyjay Diary" blog on his "Mayhematics" site www.mayhematics.com (posting of 25 March 2017). He did good work, and even though I knew him only as a correspondent he leaves a very pleasant memory.
